Nance County 4-H Story for 2007

Your 4-H story is a very important part of your 4-H record each year. By completing this story, you have successfully completed your 4-H project year. You only need to submit one story, regardless of the number of projects you enrolled. This story may be hand written or typed. Youth, 12 years and younger, should write a story that is a minimum of 100 words in length. Youth, 13 years and older, should write a story that is a minimum of 250 words in length.

You should include the following points in your story:

- Tell what you enjoy about 4-H.
- Explain what you learned in your project(s) including new skills and learning experiences. If other individuals assisted you, tell who they were and describe how they helped you.
- Describe a favorite 4-H project or experience.
- What projects or experiences would you like to see offered through the 4-H program?
- What are your future career goals or what projects would you like to take next year?

This story is due back in the Nance County Extension Office by September 1, 2007 unless you are exhibiting at the Nebraska State Fair. These 4-H stories are due by September 15, 2007.

4-H'ers may submit the 4-H Story or "4-H Career Portfolio," to complete their 4-H project year.
No 4-H record books should be submitted to the Extension Office.
